

Wake'n'Shake Voyager Vibrating Alarm Clock

The Wake N Shake Voyager Extra Loud Travel Alarm Clock with Vibration will let you make sure you wake in the mornings whilst on your travels. This compact, battery-operated alarm not only rings at a louder volume than a standard alarm, but can also be set to vibrate and light-up in order to wake even the deepest sleepers.

With extra loud tone, bright strobe light and vibration alerts, the Voyager is ideal for hard of hearing people. Thanks to its compact size and internal battery, this alarm clock will easily fit into your luggage and can be used just about anywhere without the need to connect cables or power adapters. You can use it under the mattress or pillow attaching it with the included travel case and pillow clasp.
